

The Spirit and Saint Paul

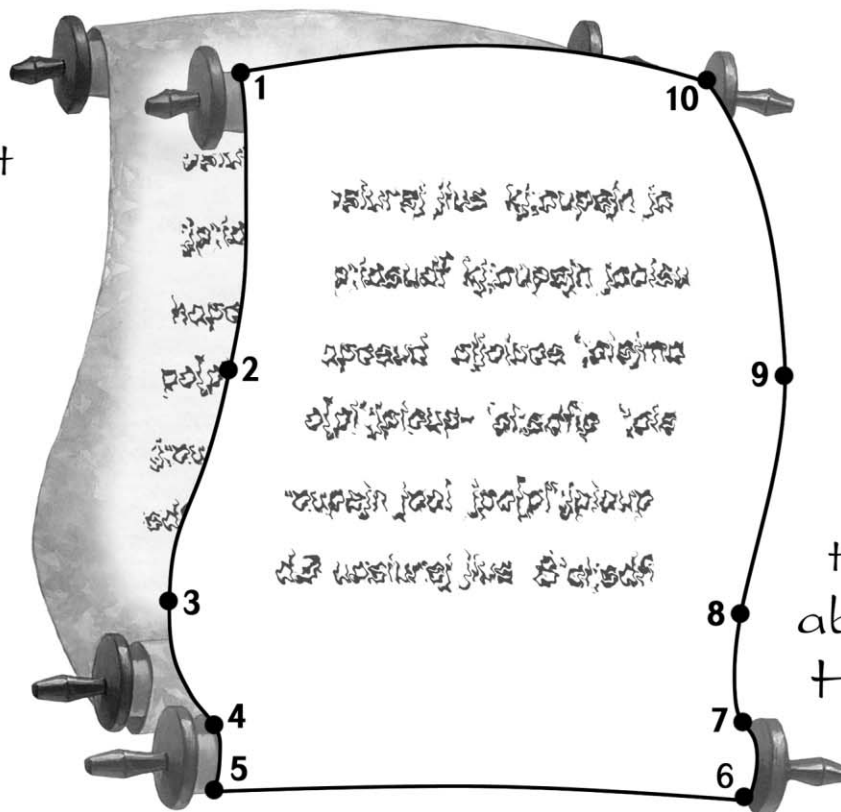

Saint Paul told the first Christians about the Holy Spirit.

Saint Paul
sailed in a

to tell people
about Jesus.

He sent to people about the Holy Spirit.

Parents, Catechists, Teachers: The apostle Paul traveled to many places to establish new church communities. To keep in contact with these new communities, he sent letters that told of his love for them and taught them more about Jesus and the Holy Spirit. Ask your child to share with you something that he or she remembers about Jesus and the Holy Spirit.
