

Accounts of the Resurrection

The evangelists wrote about Jesus' Resurrection some 30-60 years after it occurred.
Each shares important aspects relating to the event.

The following quotes are taken from the different gospels. Together they present a picture of how Jesus' followers came to learn of his Resurrection. In your Bible, refer to Matthew 28:1-10, Mark 16:1-8, Luke 24:1-12, and John 20:11-18. Record the source for each quote below.

"After the sabbath, as the first day of the week was dawning..."

"Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices..."

"And suddenly there was a great earthquake..."

"As they entered the tomb they saw a young man dressed in a white robe..."

"Why do you look for the living among the dead?"

"They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we do not know where they have laid him."

"Jesus said to her, 'Mary!' She turned and said to him in Hebrew, 'Rabbouni!'..."

"Peter got up and ran to the tomb."
