

The Vision of Pope John Paul II

In 2002, Pope John Paul II spoke to young people, insisting that freedom and peace must mark the hope of a new civilization. For that to happen, he said the world will need new builders who are motivated with genuine love and not by fear or violence.

Complete the puzzle to find another challenge of his to young people.

Parents and Catechists: Pope John Paul II spoke at World Youth Day in Toronto, July 23-28, 2002. He urged over 800,000 young people to spread the light of Christ worldwide. Talk together about the meaning of the Pope's challenge to young people.

