

Saints of the Americas

Countries in North, Central, and South America have patron saints. Some are shown here. Draw lines to match the pictures to the names.

Saint Joseph

Immaculate Conception

Our Lady of Guadalupe

Saint James the Greater

Saint James the Lesser

Saint Peter Claver

Saint Anthony of Padua

Saint Francis Solano

BLEST ARE WE

Saints of the Americas

Countries in North, Central, and South America have patron saints. Some are shown here. Draw lines to match the pictures to the names.

The map shows the following countries and their patron saints:

- Canada: Saint Joseph
- United States: Our Lady of Guadalupe
- Mexico: Immaculate Conception
- Guatemala: Saint James the Greater
- Panama: Saint James the Lesser
- Columbia: Saint Peter Claver
- Peru: Saint Anthony of Padua
- Brazil: Saint Francis Solano
- Uruguay: Saint Anthony of Padua
- Argentina: Our Lady of Guadalupe
- Chile: Saint Peter Claver

Copyright © Pearson Education, Inc. All Rights Reserved.

Parents, Catechists, Teachers: Talk about the saints who are shown as patrons here. Explain that people in these countries pray to their patron saint and ask for help and protection. You can find out more about them at www.blestarewe.com/litcal. Look them up by dates: March 19, December 8, September 12, September 9, June 13, May 3, July 13, July 25.