

COMMANDMENTS TO FOLLOW

God gave us ten rules, or commandments to follow.
We show our love for God, and make good choices when we follow them.

Some of the words below have been scrambled. Unscramble the words to complete the Ten Commandments.

1. I, the Lord, am (ryuo) your God. You shall not have (roeth) other gods (deebiss) besides me.
2. You shall not take the (mena) name of the Lord, your God, in (avni) vain.
3. (bemmeerr) Remember to keep holy the (baabths) sabbath day.
4. (noorh) Honor your father and your (rothem) mother.
5. You (lsalh) shall not kill.
6. You shall not (moctim) commit adultery.
7. You shall not (atles) steal.
8. You shall not bear false (tenwiss) witness (staanig) against your (rhoigebn) neighbor.
9. You shall not (otecv) covet your neighbor's wife.
10. You shall not covet (yathginn) anything that (bogens) belongs to your neighbor.

Parents and Catechists: Compare the Beatitudes with the Ten Commandments. The Beatitudes challenge us to treat others fairly and justly. When we do this we are also following the Ten Commandments.
